NATCA30: Progress Through Partnership

NATCA's earliest collaborative efforts

NATCA's leadership recognized the need for cooperation with the Federal Aviation Administration early in NATCA's history, laying the framework for successful collaborative relationships. The benefits from this "Age of Collaboration" can still be felt today. Read more.

Contracts Extended

NATCA, FAA agree to extend Purple and Light Blue books

The agreements, which extend the duration of both the Multi-Unit Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) and Consolidated CBA to July 1, 2021, cover more than 5,000 bargaining unit employees. Read more.

NATCA Legislative

Poster campaign continues

What does your Member of Congress think you do? Be a voice for your profession and educate them! Look for the NATCA Legislative Committee's new campaign poster in your facility today.

The poster campaign will run through NATCA in Washington 2017, where the fifth and final poster will be handed out. We encourage your engagement with this initiative as we all advance NATCA's legislative efforts in support of our careers and the National Airspace System. Have questions? Want to get involved? Your FacRep, State Legislative Coordinators, and Facility Legislative Reps are great resources to help you learn more.

Nate Enders and Family Remembered

A tragic accident takes the life of a NATCA brother

Nate Enders, his wife, Laura, and their two young sons, Jaden and Eli were lost to us this week. Nate was a controller at Atlanta TRACON and a passionate pilot. The light they brought to everyone around them will all be missed by family and friends. Read more.

A Super Bowl Save

Teamwork at ZFW defies the odds

On Sunday, Feb. 5, as Super Bowl LI was going into overtime, a team of more than half a dozen controllers at the Fort Worth Center (ZFW) went into overtime to aid a pilot whose plane had experienced complete electrical failure. Over the ensuing hour, the teamwork and quick-thinking demonstrated by ZFW's Bonham- and Dallas-area controllers helped guide the pilot to a safe landing at an emergency airport. Read more.
