Thank You for Your Hard Work and Dedication During the Thanksgiving Holiday Travel Week

NATCA Family,

As we approach Thanksgiving, we want to take a moment to express our heartfelt gratitude to each of you. This week, while many will prepare to spend time with their loved ones, you will be working tirelessly to ensure countless families can connect and celebrate together. This is a testament to the invaluable role you play in their lives.

Travelers will stress about what items to pack, what time they should leave to get to the airport, how long airport security takes, and whether their flight will depart on time. They stop worrying the moment they sit in their seat on the airplane, all thanks to the extraordinary work you do despite the obstacles of equipment, staffing, and the multitude of challenges we contend with daily.

The dedication, professionalism, and unwavering commitment displayed by all of you, whether you're directing planes, maintaining critical infrastructure, or supporting air traffic operations in various roles, does not go unnoticed. You make this holiday possible for millions of people.

Thank you for your hard work and sacrifice on behalf of the Union and all those who depend on you. We also want to extend our gratitude to your families, who support you in your demanding roles. As you help others reach their destinations this week, know that you are making a difference that truly matters.

We are wishing you and your families a wonderful and meaningful Thanksgiving.

In Solidarity,

NATCA National Executive Board
